

TALK OF IMPEACHING JUDGE DON PARDEE

FOR WRITING LETTER ADVISING
AGAINST ACTION BY CONGRESS
IN THE CASE OF JUDGE
SWAYNE.

The Atlanta Constitution of yesterday contained the following from its special correspondent in Washington, Jas. Ohl:

"The letter of Judge Pardee to General Grosvenor again figured prominently in the debates in the house today.

"General Grosvenor has been much criticised by many republicans for having made public the letter of Judge Pardee on the ground that this action was most unjust to Judge Pardee. General Grosvenor claims that under the authority given him by Judge Pardee to use his own discretion in the matter, he had fully the right to read the letter.

"The action of Judge Pardee in writing the letter was severely scored by Judge De Armond, of Missouri, who said it was with sorrow and shame that he had witnessed the exhibition made by the Pardee letter. It was, he said, the first time in the history of the country that it had been furnished with the spectacle of a judge attempting to influence by political considerations the action of the house acting in its present judicial capacity, as Judge Pardee does in this letter, in which he says: 'I do not think that a republican house should vote impeachment against him.'

"Judge De Armond said he had always understood Judge Pardee to be an upright judge, and he regretted to see him in this way place a stain upon himself, which could not be eradicated by an hundred years of usefulness. He likened this act to that of a man who would write a similar letter to a juror in Judge Pardee's court and pictured the righteous indignation over any such act, even on the part of the most ignorant man who might be presumed to know better.

"Referring to the date of the letter which was written in March last, Judge De Armond said, employing that sarcasm for which he is famous, that if it were not for the date, it might have been suspected that the letter was written by some of those other judges who, according to recent disclosures, have been reported in the habit of charging the maximum expense accounts; but, of course, he would make no such insinuation against Judge Pardee.

"The letter has been widely discussed and a good many men have suggested it as in itself warrant for the impeachment of Judge Pardee. Of course, so far this is only talk, and it is doubtful if anything more will be heard from it on that line. A good many men seem to think there is reasonable ground for doubting the friendship of General Grosvenor for Judge Pardee, in view of his action in making public this letter.

"De Armond (Missouri) declared that if Judge Swayne was not impeached it will be because of the blindness of partisanship, hate and zeal.

"Mr. De Armond (Missouri) said there had been an effort to dispose of this case not on its merits, but by drawing a line down the center aisle of the house, if, he continued, 'we knew that he (Judge Pardee) was one of those like Judge Swayne, who has been setting aside the law regarding his expense allowance for the purpose of drawing from the treasury money which does not belong to him, we could find a reason for that letter where no reason now can be found to exist, unless it should be the narrow partisanship.'

"Mr. De Armond expressed surprise that inasmuch as these charges had been made against Judge Swayne there should be objection to having him placed on trial before the senate, that his guilt or innocence might be ascertained.

"Mr. De Armond reviewed the different combats against Judge Swayne, finding cause for impeachment in all, and said the record of the case would be an impeachment of Judge Swayne as long as time shall last and memory shall endure."

NEWS NOTES OF WARRINGTON

FUNERAL OF MRS. COHRON

LARGELY ATTENDED—PERSONAL AND GENERAL

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Warrington, Jan. 19.—The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Cohron took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence and was largely attended.

Many handsome floral decorations were received, among which was a large anchor given by the Pilots and a beautiful pillow given by the Woodmen of the World. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Carpenter, of Pensacola, and interment made at the Warrington cemetery.

Mrs. Ella Miller is seriously ill at the home of her parents at the light house.

Mr. Henry Casperson has been visiting Warrington friends this week.

Mrs. Jas. Cobb and son, Armond, of Pensacola are visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Blum.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bauer are the happy parents of a fine daughter.

Both mother and child are doing well.

Mr. Fred Scholls and Miss Freda Nelson spent Sunday with Pensacola friends.

The Rebekahs will hold one of their annual dances next Tuesday evening, and it is very probable that it will be largely patronized.

Mr. Howard L. White, one of the bar pilots, is confined to his home with a severe attack of rheumatism.

A committee of citizens is arranging for a dance to be given February 8 at Warrington, the proceeds to be used in clearing the Warrington cemetery.

Many donations have already been received.

Monarch over pain, Burns, Cuts, Sprains, Stings. Instant relief. Dr. Thomas's Electric Oil. At any drug store.

SCHOONER HAZE

SAILS FOR BILOXI

LEFT YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

AND WILL BE USED AS A

PILOT BOAT.

The schooner Haze, which has been in the fishing trade for the past ten or twelve years, sailed yesterday for Biloxi, where she will in future be used as a pilot boat.

The vessel has been purchased by some of the pilots of Biloxi, who will use her in running opposition pilotage, as was done in Pensacola a year or more ago.

Some necessary repairs will be made upon the vessel, but this will not interfere with the work of the vessel, and will be done at such times as the schooner is idle. Some additions to sails and spars were made before the departure of the schooner from Pensacola, in order that she might be in readiness to go into business immediately upon reaching Biloxi.

The pilots at that place have become dissatisfied, and several of them have withdrawn from the association, and decided upon purchasing a vessel and entering into opposition to the old association. One of the members was sent here to buy a fast sailing craft, and after looking over the various schooners for sale, decided upon the Haze.

Bunks and other necessary fixtures for the comfort of the pilots will be arranged within the next few days, or after her arrival at Biloxi.

WRECKED BARK

WILL BE SOLD

GNIECCO, WHICH SAILED FROM

PENSACOLA, TO BE OFFERED

AT PUBLIC SALE.

Palm Beach, Jan. 19.—British Vice-Consul Sudlow of Jacksonville, has just returned from the wreck of the Italian bark Massa de Guecco. The survey will be held to-morrow, also the public sale. The cargo was insured previous to the sailing of the vessel from Pensacola.

Captain Musante and the crew of the wrecked bark are at West Palm Beach. They will be sent to New York and from thence to Italy.

Rev. Carlisle P. B. Martin, LL.D., of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." 25c, 50c and $1.00. For sale at all druggists.

CELEBRATION OF LEE'S BIRTHDAY

EXCELLENT PROGRAM RENDERED

AT HOME OF MRS. F. E.

BRAWNER LAST NIGHT.

The birthday of General Robert E. Lee, of Confederate fame, was appropriately observed last evening, when an entertainment, under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy, was given at the home of Mrs. F. E. Brawner. The program was an excellent one, and was enjoyed by at least one hundred persons who, in attending the event, paid tribute to one of the greatest and most distinguished generals of the world.

One of the pleasant and interesting features of the program was the address of General George Reese, who, for a space of about twenty minutes held the audience in rapt attention, reciting some of the incidents of the civil war and the record of the man in whose honor the entertainment was given.

There were many other pleasant features of the evening, the full program being as follows:

The Program.

No. 1. Mrs. J. M. Flinn, piano solo.

No. 2. Miss Nell Richards, recitation, "The Sword of Lee."

No. 3. Vocal duet, Mrs. J. C. Pebley and Mrs. F. E. Brawner.

No. 4. General George Reese, address.

No. 5. "Bonnie Blue Flag," Mrs. F. E. Brawner.

No. 6. Miss Charlie Bell Laney, piano solo.

No. 7. Miss Nell Roberts, song.

No. 8. Miss Vera Fulghum, recitation.

No. 9. Miss Lurline Fulghum, violin solo.

No. 10. Male Quartette—Mr. W. S. Garfield, Mr. Walker Anderson, Mr. R. M. Bushnell and Mr. J. O. Walker.

THE PENSACOLA BAY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

The fifth Sunday meeting of the Pensacola Bay Baptist Association will convene on Friday night, January 27, 1905, and continue through Sunday following with New Hope church, Holt, Fla.

The following program has been arranged:

Program.

Friday, January 27th, 7 p. m.—Preaching by Rev. J. T. Mapoles.

Saturday, January 28th, 9 a. m.—Devotional exercises, led by G. W. Curtis, 9:30 a. m.—Organizational.

10 a. m.—A scriptural and practical view of missions, Rev. S. Y. Pitts.

11 a. m.—Preaching by Rev. J. A. Abbott, 2 p. m.—The duty of the church to the pastor, Rev. T. J. Davis.

What the women are accomplishing, Rev. J. W. Senfrit. Meeting of executive committee, 7 p. m.—Preaching by Rev. P. Jones.

Sunday, January 29th, 9 a. m.—Sunday school, 10 a. m.—What can we do to improve our Sunday schools, Rev. J. A. Abbott, 11 a. m.—Preaching, followed by collection for Association missions, 2 p. m.—Women's meeting, 3 p. m.—What can young Christians do? Rev. E. A. Cottrell.

Fixing place of next meeting, 7 p. m.—Preaching, followed by collection for foreign, home and state missions.

Reduced rates will be arranged for on the railroads.

The executive committee hopes there will be a large attendance of messengers and visitors, and that liberal contributions will be sent up by the churches.

"It was almost a miracle. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me of a terrible blood poisoning all over the body. I am very grateful." Miss Julia I. Bridge, West Cornwell, Conn.

PRETTY LAUNCH REACHES HERE

FRANK LEWIS, WELL KNOWN IN PENSACOLA, NOW OWNS A HANDSOME VESSEL.

A pretty launch, measuring about forty feet over all reached Pensacola yesterday from Baltimore. It is owned by Frank Lewis, who is well known in the city, as he has conducted the business of "bum-boat man" since the North Atlantic fleet began to visit this port. Mr. Lewis will use the launch in connection with his business, as he pays frequent visits to the various vessels of the squadron, and as a consequence needs a vessel of this nature.

A Brooklyn paper, in speaking of the launch recently said:

The 40-foot speed launch built for Frank Lewis, of 392 Hudson avenue, by Maurice Reardon, was launched yesterday from the latter's shipyard at Sand Bay, Canarsie. A preliminary trial was given the boat, which proved very satisfactory.

At the termination of the trial it was decided to shift the ballast forward, as the high speed of the engine tended to run the boat's bow too much out of the water. This will be done, and after a canopy cabin is constructed the boat will be ready for delivery to the owner, who will use her around the bay for a short time and then proceed south by the inside course, where he will use the boat in the interest of business and pleasure combined during the winter.

The new craft is a handsome example of the shipbuilder's art and will prove an exceptionally seaworthy boat.

The length over all is 40 feet, with a water line of 36 feet and beam of 8 feet. The depth of hull amidships is 4 feet, while the draft aft is 3 feet and forward 18 inches.

The keel is of white oak with frames of the same material centered 12 inches.

One-inch white cedar, copper fastened, forms the planking, while cypress is used for the decks.

The combing and interior finish is of oak, ash and cypress, finished in natural wood. The boat has a plumb bow and overhanging stern, giving an appearance of stability and entire absence of the "freak" in her lines.

The motive power is furnished by a 5-horse power Strelenger three-cylinder motor, capable of developing 23-horse power.

Cured Lumbago.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903: "Having been troubled with lumbago at different times and tried one physician after another; then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of former sufferers." Sold by all druggists.

SUICIDE DUE TO DESPONDENCY

WELL-KNOWN YOUNG MAN KILLED HIMSELF AT HOTEL IN CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Charlotte, N. C., Jan. 19.—George Ellis Eddins, a well-known young man of this city, committed suicide at his room in the Piedmont inn at an early hour this morning. Despondency, caused by continued ill health, is said to have been responsible for the rash act.

Eddins was last seen at the supper table at the Piedmont inn last night. He left the dining table saying that he was going to his room that he felt worse than usual, and expected to retire early, hoping that sleep would benefit him. About 7 o'clock this morning a colored girl, who is employed by Mrs. Hamilton, proprietress of Piedmont inn, went to Eddins's room to call him for breakfast. She knocked, but receiving no answer, opened the door.

Lying in a pool of his own blood, she found the body of the unfortunate young man.
